SUPPLEMENT NUMBER TWO

JUNE 1980

SOME RECENT BRITISH POETRY MAGAZINES

(The following is a partial listing, compiled by Cris Cheek, of "small press" magazines published in Britain since 1975 and mainly printing poetry. The hope is to provide readers with a chance to see in which ways the British scene is and has been active over the past five years, but does not indicate recommendation. Addresses of the publishers are given where likely to be current. While we are unable to provide prices, sending $3 to one of these publishers should be enough to get a sample copy. For more information, contact the Association of Little Presses (ALP) at 262 Randolph Street, London W 9, England. Finally, bookseller Nick Kimberly, 16A Burleigh Parade, London, N.14, may be able to fill orders for much of this material.)
