This project was made possible in part by a grant from Green Tree Paint.

"What he wanted was colours the effect of which was confirmed and strengthened under artificial light; little he cared even if they should appear insipid or crude, for he lived most of his life at night, holding that night afforded greater intimacy and isolation, and that the mind found its only real excitant and effective stimulation in contact with shades of evening; moreover he derived a peculiar pleasure ... a selfish mode of gratification familiar enough to those who sometimes work late at night when, drawing aside the curtains, they note how all about them the world lies inert, dumb and dead.

Slowly, one by one, he sifted out the different tones."
— J.K. Huysman, A REBOURS

"..... poetic language the only signifying strategy allowing the speaking animal to shift the limits of its enclosure."
— Julia Kristeva, DESIRE IN

Prove the Corollary: Illicitation of tactile relation to a woman, combined with an apotheosis of the woman during a religious state can be linked to a 'sterilizing' operation, the insistence of a shallow 'discipline' which actually tries to deny the corporeality of such attentions.

Prove the Corollary: The International Standard of Length (the wavelength of the red-orange light emitted by Krypton 86) as a rule can be accepted by the individual as a 'casual' measure, since no sign (language unit) escapes subjectivity.

PERSONAL SYNTAX

In your record of conches, Johannes, an uncanny intimation of my practice — exacerbated, alienated labor — me, myself, living on the proper code of inherited epiphenomenal coins about which I've become distraught, striking those processes and their statist wiles in an anarchic hedging of engaged citizenry, sweeping out a vectored radius of personal affront

OLD NAMES

Constellations; mimetic proliferation of the beast mythos; what merchant marines relegate to heritage. Speleology recovers the notion of Hell as geognostic stasis. Rhythm of matériel. Archive of birthrights. Motif is solicited on this basis. For a small remainder soon exceeds itself under the gaze. Pharmacology is a vocabulary of effects in this manner; magicians' cures find an empiricity, a city of antidotes. Metropolis is inhabited. Codicil of historical deaths. Alterity here puts out its seeming. Though only discreetly; the difference in falling/throwing oneself to the ground. Punctuated expenditures of virus and the like.

Altogether kept in the defenestrated sacristy are the vestments of the papal office, and the relics. Subsidence in the portico, albeit slight, faltering; encrusted. And the portal redeemed by the colonnade.

Naves aligningly pagan over the partially razed pagan necropolis: seven. Built into an elevated basin for ablatives. The battology of ablution has solidity, as repetend. An arch clerihehew.

The apse, the transept, the copula.

As guarantor implies accusative pilasters, so a lunette counterpart is logically opposed to the dative opening of the atrium
